

servant of the one we obey. Roman culture abhors the way, the truth, and the life, and has set up sacraments to dispense favor through a network of control over the laity. Yahusha says He hates Nikolaitans, the conquerors of the people. The reason the Yahudim (Jews) have great difficulty accepting their own Mashiak in today's world is they regard the name JESUS CHRIST as a foreign Catholic deity, which it truly is. The words are Greco-Latin. JESUS first appeared in the 17th century CE, evolving from the Latin Vulgate's IESV. The followers of this Catholic deity observe the first day of the week (Sun-Day) to rest as Constantine ordered them to do in his Edict in 321 CE. They profane the real Shabath Day, the 7th day of each week, buying, selling, working and traveling as much as they want. In His warning about the last days, Yahusha told them to pray their flight not be on the Shabath Day (Mt. 24:20). Did He mean Yahuah's Shabath, or Constantine's? Yahuah knew the mother of harlots would change things: "Her priests have done violence to My teaching and they profane My qodesh things. They have not distinguished between the qodeshand profane, nor have they made known the difference between the unclean and the clean. And they have hidden their eyes from My Shabathuth, and I am profaned in their midst. Her leaders in her midst are like wolves tearing the prey, to shed blood, to destroy lives, and to get greedy gain." Yekezqal /Ez. 22:26-27

The instructions of Constantine are followed even to the point of adopting EASTER, an ancient form of the name ISHTAR.

CONSTANTINE CREED

WHY CHRISTIANS DISOBEY THE COMMANDMENTS OF YAHUAH

Christianity as we know it today developed from Catholicism; a mixture of false and pagan teachings. The blending began through the authoritarian mandates of Constantine.

This is what Constantine would demand, with the cooperation of the Circus with its bishop's, elders & teachers. All of which were appointed by him.

The Creed began at Nicaea in 325, and was later amended in 381 at the First Council of Constantinople. This was known as the Nicene Creed, but also as the Niceno-Constantinopolitan Creed.

Everyone, especially a Yahudi, in order to become a Christian, would solemnly pledge to live by a profession of faith, such as Constantine's Creed:

"I renounce all customs, rites, legalisms, unleavened breads and sacrifices of lambs of the Eberim, and all the other feasts of the Eberim, sacrifices, prayers, aspirations, purifications, sanctifications, and propitiations, and fasts and new moons, and Sabbaths, and superstitions, and hymns and chants, and observances and synagogues. absolutely everything Yahudi, every law, rite and custom and if afterwards I shall wish to deny and return to Yahudi superstition, or shall be found eating with Yahudim, or feasting with them, or secretly conversing and condemning the Christian religion instead of openly confuting them and condemning their vain faith, then let the trembling of Cain and the leprosy of Gehazi cleave to me, as well as the legal punishments to which I acknowledge myself liable. And may I be anathema in the world to come, and may my soul be set down with satan and the devils."

Furthermore, any follower of the "Jewish Messiah" (Yahusha ha-Mashiak) who wished to join this "holy community" was compelled to adopt a different set of rules and customs. So, unique creeds were drafted, to which the new Christian would have to swear:

"I accept all customs, rites, legalism, and feasts of the Romans, sacrifices. prayers, purifications with water, sanctifications by Pontificus Maximus (high priest of Rome), propitiations, and feasts, and the New Sabbath

“Sol dei” (day of the Sun), all new chants and observances, and all the foods and drinks of the Romans. In other words, I absolutely accept everything Roman, every new law, rite and custom, of Rome, and the New Roman Religion.”

In approximately 365 AD, the Council of Laodicea invoked a curse on any that would obey the 4th Commandment in one of their canons:

“Christians must not Judaize by resting on the Sabbath, but must work on that day, rather, honoring the Lord’s Day. But if any shall be found to be Judaizers, let them be anathema* from Christ.”

Protestants are included as they still observe the same traditions and holidays, as well as the Sabbath of Rome. Early influences resulting from Constantine’s Creed and the Council of Nicaea are still very much adhered to by the Protestants and Catholics.

The question, “are you going to church this coming Lord’s day?” would make no sense to the first followers of Yahusha (Natsarim), but makes perfect sense to both Catholics and Protestants.

The “LORD’S Day” referred to at Revelation 1:10 is not Sun-day, but rather the Day of Yahuah, which the book intends to reveal in detail to the assemblies.

Hebrews 4 mentions the weekly day of rest we must observe:

“So there remains a Sabbath-keeping for the people of Yahuah. For the one, having entered into His rest, has himself also rested from his works, as Yahuah rested from His own.”

Mt. 24:20 tells us of the distress of the last days, “And pray that your flight does not take place in winter or on the Sabbath.”

The more closely we study, the more we find that traditions have become normalized behavior, and obedience to the commands of Yahuah are maligned as evil. (2Pet. 2:2), akin to heresy.

Romans 6:16 tells us we are the

THE AUTHORITARIAN CULTURE THE WORLD OBEYS IS BEING EXPOSED

The historical objective of a creed is to establish a universal list of accepted beliefs among Christians. Conflicts over doctrinal beliefs were resolved at councils set up to make a determination that would develop into a creed. The acceptance or rejection of a creed served to distinguish believers from heretics. The winners of the conflicts wrote the history of our traditions, and behavior patterns.
